

Social progress isn't shameful

Calaveras Enterprise, Posted: Tuesday, March 2, 2010 10:44 AM CST

A recent letter raised the specter that the Valley Springs Community Plan process was being controlled by “social progressives.”

It raised the question in my mind about what the alternative is to being socially progressive. Socially regressive? Do we go backwards to segregation, take away women's right to vote, slavery, child labor, burning witches, etc.

If social progress is considered evil, chalk me up as one of the bad guys.

Mick Stockard

Valley Springs